

Air1 provides an extremely VALUABLE source of music, programming, and news not available through other means. I find that if AIR1 were displaced the community would be losing out on part of what makes being an American great, freedom of speech. I would say if AIR1 were displaced the community would miss out on opportunities that are available and only announced/advertised over their network.